

CURRICULIM VITAE

Patrick H. Daly

[b. 15.05.1951] Dublin, Ireland

Primary Schooling: Scoil Fatima, Sligo; Dunally National School, Co. Sligo

Secondary Schooling: Clongowes Wood College [SJ], Naas, Co. Kildare

University Education:

University College Dublin, BA [History & Philosophy] 1973

MA [History] 1975

Catholic University of Louvain [KU Leuven]:

Diploma in Medieval Studies 1977

PhD Medieval History 1981

Professional Career:

European Commission Official [Interpreter] 1981 – 85

Free-lance Interpreter 1985 – 87

University Faculties St. Aloysius, Brussels Lecturer Faculty of English

1985 – 87

Seminary Training:

Pontifical Bede College, Rome 1987 – 91

University of St. Thomas [Angelicum], Rome 1988 – 91

STL 1991

Ordained Priest, Rome 5 April 1991

Priest of the Archdiocese of Birmingham:

St. Chad's Cathedral, Birmingham: Curate 1991 – 93

Administrator 1993 – 99

St. Mary's College, Oscott: Church History Lecturer 1992 – 2002

St. Peter & St. Paul, Wolverhampton: Parish Priest 1999 – 2012

Chaplain HM Prison Featherstone 1999 – 2002

Chaplain to University of Wolverhampton 2002 – 12

Chaplain to St. Edmund's Catholic Comprehensive School 2006 – 12

[Work with COMECE & Bishops' Conference:

Assistant to Archbishop Maurice Couve de Murville & Bishop Crispian Hollis at COMECE, 1992 – 2002

Member of COMECE-KEK Committee 1995 – 2002

Bishops Conference European Affairs Committee 1992 – 2002]

Languages

Native language English. Fluent in French, Dutch, Italian and German.
[University Studies in Flemish/Dutch section of KULeuven; conference interpreter/official EU Commission French & Dutch into English; theological studies in Italian section of the Angelicum, proficiency in German]

Publications

[supporting documents following]: The FURROW, The TABLET, CATHOLIC HERALD, CATHOLIC TIMES, & academic journals.